“ *I am so sorry for your loss.
Death is such an unnatural thing. God did not create Adam and Eve to die. So handling death is so very hard.
We have to draw close to God in prayer. He has promised to sustain us if we do (Psalm 55:22).
And we have to have confidence in the resurrection. (John 5:28,29)
Because of our belief in the resurrection, our sorrow does not have to be unrelenting. We can look forward to seeing our dead loved ones again.
I hope these scriptural thoughts bring you comfort.##imported-begin##Sandy##imported-end##*
