“ I am so sorry for your loss. For thirty years I lived on the corner of John David Lane and Gingerbread Lane in Albany. Eleanor would stop by in her car and talk to Ann Rupert and any other neighbors gathered in front of her garage door. As another Albany teacher, I truly enjoyed our conversations. My son was born in 2006 and I walked over to her house to show him to her. I moved out of the area in 2008. Eleanor was a wonderful lady and I was deeply saddened to read of her death. I am confident she is in a wonderful place with no pain. God bless you all.
