

Elizabeth T. DeVaney

August 5, 1914 - June 1, 2011

Albany-Elizabeth (Tibby) Treveal DeVaney, 96, died Wednesday, June 1, 2011 at St. Peter's Nursing & Rehabilitation Center. Born in Auburn on August 5, 1914, she was predeceased by her loving husband, William J. DeVaney and her brother Thomas Treveal. She is survived by her children Elizabeth (Paul) Sullivan of Montclair, NJ and Kathleen (John) Biscone of Altamont, NY, her grandchildren Laura (Travis) Murphy, Timothy Sullivan, J. William (Michele) Biscone, Kathleen Biscone Therriault, Sarah (Judson) Newkirk, Meghan (Lawrence) DeMaria, Brendan C. Biscone, Elizabeth (Robert) Currie, Molly Biscone and seven great grandchildren.

A loving and caring mother, Tibby lived life to the fullest. In her early life, she worked in the Treasurer's Office for the Town of Auburn. She was involved in many school activities at both St. Paul's in Norwich and Vincentian Institute in Albany. Her home was a magnet to her friends and the friends of her children. An avid reader and crossword puzzle solver, she was famous for her cooking ability and as a loyal friend to all who knew her.

The family would like to publicly thank the wonderful healthcare providers at both St. Peter's and McAuley Residence.

“ Dear Kathy,

I am so sorry that I missed your mother's obituary in the TU. I heard about her passing last night at 'Assisi' and already had another commitment for this morning. Please know that she and your family are in my prayers!

“ Dear Betsy and Cathy,
Shelia sent me the news of your mom's passing. I remember both of your parents as people who loved to laugh and enjoyed their girls and their friends. How wonderful to have had such a long life! Good memories.
With prayers,
