“ *Uncle Wayne, Ricky and Karen,
My deepest sympathies to you all. Though we haven't seen you all lately, I have fond memories of when we were together. Always a laugh, a hug, and of course a beer or two! Aunt Ellen always welcomed us with a huge hug and was always there when we needed. She will be truly missed. Love to you all,

“ How sad it is when laughter dies, someone wrote that in a note to me when my mom passed, it applies here as well. I only knew Ellie through friends at the Siena Games but I recognized in her a warm heart and a gentle spirit. I hope time brings the gift of remembrance for the good times.##imported-begin##Jim Spear##imported-end##
