

E. Paul Campion

January 24, 1922 - October 30, 2009

Albany-E. Paul Campion, 87, died Friday, October 30, 2009 at Teresian House. Born in Albany, he was the son of the late George and Nan Carlin Campion.

Paul's father was the second generation operator of the former Campion Funeral Home on Broadway in North Albany.

He was a 1940 graduate of Vincentian Institute, Albany. Paul was a US Army, WW II veteran serving in the Pacific Theater, and was awarded a Battle Star. He worked for Lone Star Co., Glens Falls Cement, and MM. Hayes Co.

Paul's great devotion was not just to his beloved late sisters, Kathryn and Mary, but also to the University of Notre Dame, and the Holy Cross Fathers. Over the years Paul and his sisters attended countless football and basketball games, and developed friendships with many of the school's greatest modern-era heroes, including Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., Edward W. "Moose" Krause, and the legendary coach, Lou Holtz. These men-of-Notre Dame, along with countless other ND staff and alumni corresponded regularly with Paul both on and off campus, and shared with him the mission of not just crafting the future of our youth, but a deep and abiding devotion to our Blessed Mother. Paul's presence within the Notre Dame family wasn't his only contribution to the University, but as benefactor he was a longtime member of the Edward Frederick Sorin Society and the Holy Cross Association. His passion for Notre Dame also brought him to election as a founding member of the Notre Dame Club of Northeastern New York Board of Directors.

He was a communicant, Lector, and Eucharistic Minister at St. Mary's Church, Albany, and life member of Ft. Orange Club and American Legion. He was a member of Wolferts Roost Country Club and charter member of the WW II Foundation and United States Golf Associates.

Paul was the brother of the late Joseph F. Campion, George A. Campion, III, Kathryn J and Mary E. Campion, and Alice Campion Carrano.

“ Paul & my Father John F. Barry were army buddies and served together on Okinawa during World War II. Paul was my God Father as well. Now they are both serving together somewhere!

“ My parents, now deceased, were friends of Paul's. My parents owned a lumber yard in Cold Spring, NY, and I believe the connection was related to the selling of cement at the lumber yard for construction projects. When I was considering enrolling at the College of St. Rose years ago now, my parents and I had a lovely lunch with Paul at a country club (I think). My prayers for Paul's eternal rest and sympathy to his family.###imported-begin##Barbara McConville###imported-end##
