“ Please accept my condolence on the loss of Ervin. I found him while doing ancestry research on our family back in 2009. We spoke several times, especially about his playing ball with my Uncle Henny, and my dad William (Billy) when they were younger. I enjoyed our talks and his sense of humor. As I understand it, he leaves cousin Shirley as the only remaining person of their generation. Ervin will be sorely missed. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Robert William Coy##imported-end##
