“ One can never find the right words to say to ease the pain felt from the loss of a loved one. However we can find comfort in knowing that you now dwell in the most beautiful place known to man..Heaven. It's hard to face the fact that you can no longer grace us with your presence. However the pleasure comes from knowing that what we lost in the physical has been gained in the spiritual. Ethel you were one who spoke softly and smiled often. Of all your siblings I've known you the longest. Since back on Second St when Tish and I were roadies. Even then you had such a grace about you that anyone could respect. Your loss is unfortunate but the love that some many have for you is undeniable. I pray that you have found peace and your soul has been converted into the angel that you are. Foever in our hearts, thoughts and memories.

“ Aww man auntie! Me seein you laughin n havin a good time still flashes in my head. I remember Jan 1 2000 my granma on my father side passed away. It was New Years night and everybody went out and partied. You was at the house all by yourself and i came in the door with a bottle of Moet n Alize the red kind. We got wasted! We talked and sipped til the sun came up! You straight cussed "Buck" clean out. Then after that every New Years you was my get twisted partner. Now seein you layin up in the hospital not havin all the energy that you use to have crushed me. You spoke to me in a way that i knew it was gonna be our last few words. You layin in that bed lookin like you was resting so peaceful. I wanted to embrace you so bad that i jus did'nt know wut to do. I know when i see you layin there in that box really gonna have me buggin, knowing tha's gonna be the last and final time i'm gonna see my "COCO". I know you gonna be rockin up there with the rest of our deceased loved ones. Just rember that i will always love you and keep you in my thoughts.###imported-begin###keon lipscomb###imported-end###

“ Dear Auntie...

Words can't express how i'm feeling right now. I lossed five loved ones in a ten year span. Both my grandmothers, two aunts, and a cousin. I know you're all in a better place now. But it's hard to think about not seeing you physically. I just have to keep telling myself i'll be able to feel you spiritually. Your spirit lives on in all of us. And eveyone else you came in contact with during your life. Each one of us will have our own special memory of you. In fact, the one the sticks out in my mind is when you let me borrow your car and I crashed the back end of it. Remember that? I rode around for about an hour trying to come with a believable lie to tell you. Then it came to me. I said, "I'll tell her I was parked in Hannaford parking lot, and when I came out I seen that somebody hit the back of the car." Then you asked did anybody see it or leave a note. I was like, "Nope." I think you knew I was lying but you didn't bugout on me. I love you for that! Awhile later the truth did come out because somebody had got the license plate # and reported it to their insurance company. Sacora took a couple hits on her license for that one. (Sorry about that cuz!!) But anyway, I just wanted to holla at ya auntie and let you know that I really love you and miss you. Now you don't have feel any more pain. You've been delivered to the Almighty God and your in the best hands that anyone can be in. Till we meet again, I love you and you will be forever in my thoughts.

“ “BEAUTY OF A WOMAN”

The beauty of a woman is not in the clothes she wears, the figure she carries, or the way she combs her hair. The beauty of a woman must be seen from her eyes, because that is the doorway to her heart. The place where love resides. The beauty of a woman is not in a facial mole, but true beauty in a woman is reflected in her soul. It is the caring that she lovingly gives, the passion that she shows. The beauty of a woman with passing years--- only grows.

“ Dear Ma, our relationship is one of my dearest possessions. It saddens me to know for the rest of my time on this earth i have no one to call ma but,gives me something to look forward to saying when we are reunited again. It brings me comfort to know you are with your mom, dad, sister, nephew and daddy (Tate) and you are no longer suffering. Thanks for showing me everything you know and i will cherish the memories and times we spent together. While on this earth you said you saw you mother, she must have been waiting for you so she could show you the way and when it's my time i know you will be waiting for me to show me the way as well. “ To: CoCo

I along with the rest of the family will miss you, but will always remember how much of an asset you were to the Harrison family. You had swag, a swag that was very different from the rest of your sisters. you also had character, a character that everyone wanted to embrace. I am glad to be able to say that you are my anutie. I loved getting you started in ann's back yard, you brought joy everytime I was back there. I left laughing everytime, something I enjoy doing. This is what I love most about you and the rest of your sisters you all know how to make me laugh. I cannot say how much I will miss you, but I will say I have so many memories that will comfort me in knowing how loving you were.

Thought: I remember when you lived in the house with me, Grandma, Domanek, and Pilla on North Lake, and you had us rollin everytime we asked you who came through ya window;Anwser=A vampire, and he sucked ya goodie bone. Everybody talked about the road kill stanky hairs but I will note that you taught me how to choose cars with style when I do get ready to buy one, I remember that hot red car you had when we lived on Clinton Ave. Like I said you had swag “Love is just a word until someone comes along and gives it meaning.” You do that for us all, you give meaning to the word love and you will reamain dear to us all.##imported-begin##Queisha##imported-end##

“ To our loving Aunt Ethel “Co-Co”

Every since I was a little girl I admired everything about you. Your style, the way you dressed and carried yourself. You were like a fashion model in my eyes growing up. You're beautiful, kind-hearted, and brave. You've always stood up for your family and were always there to protect your loved ones. I've never known you to ever cross anyone or to have been deceitful in any way and I always commended you for that.

You were truly an Angel in disguise, and now God has called upon his Angel to join the rest upstairs; to continue to look down, protect, and watch over all who loved you. I know you're in a much better place of peace. Even though we weren't ready for you to leave, we understand Heaven called and asked for their Angel back.
