“ Joe and family --- My memory of Eva goes back to when we were in high school. We both worked in Honikel's drug store as soda "Jerks". Eva was always up on a counter cleaning something and I was in a corner trying not to be seen eating ice cream. It was a good time in our lives. After marriage and having children we found each other again. At CBA watching our sons play football. In their senior year it was our turn at making the meals. Breakfast for afternoon games and Dinner for evening games. Joe was always at the big machine mashing something mostly potatoes. After the games the parents all went out and talked about the game we won or why we lost. The best times I remember were the parent parties in the CBA gym. We were still there talking when the cleaning crew came in. I remember one time we took a group of parents and the football guys down to a West Point football game. Those were good times we were like a big family. A few years later we were back at CBA watching our grandsons playing football. So looking back Joe, I hope this puts a smile on your face. You have a great family and many friends to help you through this sad time. Many fond memories to talk about will give you strength.
My sincere sympathy,
Pat Blanchfield
