

Evelyn C. Stazio

January 5, 1936 - May 2, 2014

Albany-Stazio, Evelyn C (Eubanks), Albany, NY

Evelyn Stazio, 78 passed away peacefully May 2, 2014. Evelyn began her beautiful existence in Mississippi and moved to Albany, NY where she became the loving wife of 50 years to Richard Stazio Sr. Evelyn's happiness and constant smile came from the life she lived with her husband and the joy of caring for their 3 children Jacqueline, Richard and Candace. The twinkle in her eyes brightened further when she became the grandmother of Richard Michael and Danielle Stazio.

A gentle mannered quiet soul, Evelyn always offered nothing but kind words, an open ear and surpassing love for anyone who needed it. She loved spending time with her dear friends at her second home in Clearwater, Florida. One of 8 children, she entered heaven greeted by her parents Vera and Roscoe Eubanks and siblings Clyde Bailey, Levina Adeline Gillespie, Mary Nell Wood, Ellen Lyons, and Diane Eubanks and many Stazio family members who adored her from the moment they met her so many years ago.

She is survived by her brothers William Edward Eubanks (Brenda), Russell Erving Eubanks. Also survived by Diane Stazio and many cousins, nieces and nephews. Evelyn's priority was always caring for her husband, children and grandkids and the warm relations she kept throughout her life. She will always be dearly missed.

“ To the entire Stazio family:

We are so sorry for the loss you all are feeling right now. Evelyn was certainly a very special woman who's company was always a gift. We hope that your loss and sadness are soon replaced by smiles, happiness and warmth when you think of her. I'll always remember her smile and her sweet calm voice. She was so beautiful and gentle. Please know that our family has you in our thoughts and prayers. Heaven has indeed acquired a quiet but strong and capable angel. Much love...
