“ Francis "Mickey" Michael Kelly

October 08, 2023 at 09:24 PM

“ To the family of SFC Francis Kelly/USA (NYARNG)(Ret)-
Tonight, Mickey as he was known by so many, came to mind and I looked up his name only to learn a few weeks back, he passed away. I met Mickey many years back when he was a Army National Guard recruiter with his son, Patrick, and found him to be a straight forward honest guy which lead to myself signing on the dotted line in Albany, NY. As life's travels took myself at distances and changed branches later on, Mickey left an impression which I wanted to extend my condolences to his family, in which he was duly proud of along with his Irish heritage. After recruiting, his last assignment was as Senior Guidance Counselor at Albany MEPS/Albany, NY, before retiring in mid 1990s era. May Mickeys service to his family, community, state and nation be rewarded in life everlasting.
Respectfully submitted-

*Barbara, Mick comes to mind often and I'd like to hear from you sometime. My genealogy lists names Fitzmaurice from County, Kerry, IRE whom immigrated to Holyoke, MA and Albany, NY. Sure wished I would've been able to talk to Mick again about that topic. Hopefully at some point you'll read and respond to my posting. Regards,

“ I am so very sorry for the passing of my friend. Serving him at the VA for many years gave me great joy able giving back to a good man, fellow Veteran, and a guy who was always positive no matter what he was going through. My prayers go out to his Family and I and, many others, will miss him. God Bless.

“ I remember Mickey Kelly both from Blessed Sacrament and from the NY Army National Guard. He was with the 210th Armor . I was with the 42nd Division.

His sister Mary Ann was in my class at Blessed Sacrament School (Class of 1958). When she was a teacher she taught all three of my daughters at Blessed Sacrament School. I knew his brother Bill when he was involved with scouting at Blessed Sacrament and when he worked at the Teresian House. Their Aunt Mary Kelly married my mother's brother Gus Schaefer. Great person from a wonderful family!
