

Francis Clinton Sarson

April 27, 1953 - January 1, 2023

Albany, NY-Francis Clinton Sarson passed away on Sunday, January 1 surrounded by his family.

An avid sports fan, animal lover, and fisherman. Clint was lifelong member of the Albany community. Born, raised and had a family here, he valued the friendships he made and the people he grew up with. He enjoyed time with his family, watching football and attending grandchildren's sporting events.

Francis is survived by his wife, Kathy; daughter Shawna and her husband Bryan; stepdaughter Erin and her husband John; and stepson Tim and his wife Lisa. Grandchildren: Jack, Evan, Nora, and Griffin. His sister Sue and her family and brother Bill and his family.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Francis's family Thursday, January 5, 2023 8:30 am to 10:00 am at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking entrance only.

His Memorial Funeral Mass will follow at 10:30 am at Historic Church of St. Mary on Capitol Hill, Albany, NY

“ Wow, Clint was a blast from my past. Although I have not seen him in over 40 years, I have very fond memories. He was a part of my growing up as a Football fan and player. Clint was a heck of a Quarterback from my memory. He was a cool guy and had a touch and swagger like Joe Namath. He encouraged me. I had fun catching his passes on the old Milne Field in mid-town Albany.
