“ I was disheartened to hear of Frank's untimely passing. Our working relationship traces back to our earliest days at the PSC and carried through in our careers through a matter decided this month. Frank was a consummate professional that I routinely relied upon and, much more, he was a warm and compassionate man. As much as we conferred on work, we talked more about family and life. He will be missed.

“ Frank was a great guy and a good friend. He was one of the most tolerant and giving men I have ever known. He was also a joy to work with. He was sharp, insightful, and did great work with his colleagues and clients. He is going to be sorely missed by the public power community in New York. He loved his family dearly. My condolences.

“ I remember Frank so well from the time spent at National Little League when our children were younger. He was an "involved parent," dedicating his time to manage one of the teams. I remember his smile and easy going nature. Our condolences to the family. Kathy and Dennis Chamberlin

“ Frank was a "man's man". Very funny, compassionate guy who loved his family and wore his heart on his sleeve. It's not the quantity of days down here that matters, but the quality in which we live them. He was a great example that the most meaningful life, while certainly involving oneself, is best lived for others. He was one in a million who will be fondly remembered by those whose lives he touched.

“ I am so sad to hear of Frank's passing. While I haven't seen him in some time, I recall the old days when we played cards, busting each other's chops, and laughing A LOT. The card games were a weekly ritual and looked forward to. I recall running into Frank and Colleen here and there in these later years, and he was still smiling like always, my sincerest condolences to Colleen and family. Your husband and dad was a great guy.

“ We were saddened to hear of Frank’s passing. He was an incredible person.

Frank was always giving of himself. And he was almost always smiling. He laughed and joked every single time we saw him and he made us laugh, too. We can honestly say that we always came away feeling better after seeing him.

It was truly a gift to have a small view into the life of this beloved man who will be missed greatly. Prayers, thoughts and love to your family as you grieve during this difficult time. May God’s presence around you, holding you, be deeply felt.
