“ Nancy, perhaps you don't remember me, but my Mother and i were friends of your Mother. It has been some time since Jane's passing and when she had lived off of Lorelee Drive. My Mother played Bridge with that group, we belonged to Pine Grove and through the Mason's I became good friends with Marion and Bob Seim. During this time, I had met you and your Brother. Your Mother was very proud of both of you and especially her Grand Children. It was a tragedy that your Mother went blind, as she loved life so much. Now, George is with her in Heaven. I am sure, like your Mother, that you have had a lot of cherished memories, which will always be with you. You have a wonderful family and they will always be with you. Don't feel depressed or sad, be happy that you had the best of everything life can offer.
