“ I want to send condolences to all of Gerry’s family again. I’m glad we ( Gerry’s cousins Gabi and Peter, Peter’s wife Renate and their children) met Gerry and Peggy in 2012, 2015 and 2018 during our three visits to the USA. In June 2013, Gerry, Peggy and Brian came to our daughter Veronika’s wedding. At that time, Gerry also paid a visit to Munich and to the elementary school he had attended before leaving for America with his family.

The school management were very helpful and dug up old records of Gerry’s school-time. Gerry as well as Gabi and Peter appreciated this very much.

We knew that he wasn’t in good health but just kept hoping he would be there for us to meet again next time we came over. What remains is to look forward to seeing Peggy and her sons and grandchildren again in 2020 or 2021 and to talking about him together.

We feel certain you as a family will support each other in your grief and find comfort in all the good memories you have of him.

Renate, also in the name of Peter, Gabi, Veronika and Erik, Tobias, Madlena and Chris.

“ Condolences to Peggy and sons. Your husband and father was a good man. Rest assured that he did not want to continue existing as his diminished health forced him to live. I've made a donation in his name to the Ausable Valley Animal Shelter. Jerry always loved dogs. He had wanted to meet Gertrude, but we were unable to arrange that. Chris Woltermann & Gertrude
