“ my grandpa was the sweetest yet most funniest person I knew. He would always make me laugh and I cherished him deeply. One thing I will always remember is he would draw this faces and he would always try to make “the ugliest person in the world”. I still have those drawings and they always make me laugh. He was always interested on what I had going on in my life and was always asking me where I plan to go to college. He always believed in me and made me the person I am today. He will be and is already very missed. I will always love you Grandpa -Claire Lambert
