“ My memories of Gerry begin at a very early age (since she has known me all of my life) and they are all very fond ones. My favorite memory is probably how supportive she and Joan were of my relationship with my now-husband, even when others (ahem, my mother) was suggesting it wouldn't last. We often joked over the years how Gerry was the only one hoping that we would make it. Gerry and Joan always stood by us, and wished the best for us. Gerry loved hearing from our kids and seeing photos of them, displaying them as though they were her own grandchildren. We were lucky to have you in our corner Gerry, and we will miss you.
