

Gladys R. Branche

May 17, 1918 - October 19, 2013

Albany-Gladys R. Branche, known to family and friends as Bobbie, found her final peace on October 19, 2013 in New Paltz, NY after a long illness.

A long-time resident of Albany, she was born May 17, 1918 to Charles and Ethel Rhinehart. Mrs. Branche was a graduate of Albany Business College and became employed as a secretary/bookkeeper for Orange Motor Company for over 19 years and worked in that position for many Albany businesses during her lifetime.

She was a member of Kenwood Braille Association, Children of Mary of Kenwood, and a life member of Wolferts Roost Country Club. She had volunteered for the blind for over 55 years and gave of her time to other volunteer organizations.

An avid Yankee and Giants fan, she enjoyed going to the races at Saratoga and playing golf well into her 70's and watching golf well beyond that.

Mrs. Branche was predeceased by her husband, John L. Branche, in 1964 and by her parents, her sister, Marie Roosa and her brother, Egbert Rhinehart. She is survived by several loving nieces and nephews.
