

J. Dennis Cafaro

December 17, 1947 - November 13, 2019

Colonie - J. Dennis Cafaro, 71, entered Eternal Life on November 13, 2019 with his beloved family at his bedside after a 10-month battle with cancer.

Born in Albany, he was the son of the late Angelo A. Cafaro Sr. and Jennie R. Cafaro (Simon). After growing up in Colonie, he graduated South Colonie High School in 1966. He went on to study at Junior College of Albany, later graduating from Oklahoma City University in 1970 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management. He was a proud brother of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, where he was voted "Best Member of the Year." After college, Dennis enjoyed a successful 35-year career as Manager of Office Operations/Business Manager at CHA Consulting, where he was admired by his colleagues.

Dennis' ultimate passion was serving his community. From 1995-2005, he was a Trustee of the South Colonie Board of Education, which included 2 years of service as the Board's President. He co-founded South Colonie's Dollars for Scholars chapter. South Colonie Schools honored Dennis' years of service to the district by inducting him into their Hall of Fame in 2006. He was very dedicated to his faith as a 32-year parishioner at the Church of St. Clare in Colonie, where he spent many years on the finance committee. He served as a coach for Colonie Little League and was the Assistant Pack Leader for the Colonie Cub Scouts.

For years and to this day, Dennis spent his summer weekends boating and camping with his family on Sacandaga Lake. He enjoyed annual vacations to Cape Cod and cruises with his dear friends. He loved his monthly guy's night out at Ralph's Tavern, where he was always DD. His hobbies at home included listening to his music, spending time at his desk & computer and doing home improvement projects.

Dennis' greatest gift was being the ultimate family man. He was an amazing father to his children. He cherished his four grandchildren. He was the "World's Greatest Husband" to his wife Jean, where in 45 years she never once had to put gas in her car. He was loved by his brothers for his positivity, leadership and selflessness. He was the caregiver to both of his parents as they aged and always did it with a smile.

Dennis is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Jean, his children Dana Renzi (Alessandro), Philip (Michelle), his grandchildren Taylor and Hadley Cafaro, Biagio and Giada Renzi; Brothers Angelo Jr. (Patricia), Steven, David (Michele McCabe); Sister-in-laws Gail Borst (John), Donna Sanfilippo, Anne Howell (Michael); Brother-in-law Arthur Sanfilippo (Carol) aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and dear friends.

The Cafaro Family would like to extend their sincere thanks to Dr. Susan Weaver and the NYOH staff, as well as Dr. Alan Boulos and the Albany Medical Center team for their compassionate care.

On the Death of a Beloved

*Though we cannot see you with outward eyes,
We know our soul's gaze is upon your face,
Smiling back at us from within everything
To which we bring our best refinement.*

*Let us not look for you only in memory,
Where we would grow lonely without you.
You would want us to find you in presence,
Beside us when beauty brightens,
When kindness glows
And music echoes eternal tones.*

*When orchids brighten the earth,
Darkest winter has turned to spring;
May this dark grief flower with hope
In every heart that loves you.*

May you continue to inspire us:

*To enter each day with a generous heart.
To serve the call of courage and love
Until we see your beautiful face again
In that land where there is no more separation,
Where all tears will be wiped from our mind,
And where we will never lose you again.*

by John O'Donohue

May the beautiful memories be for a blessing and may grace and peace abound as you grieve the loss of this most beautiful soul.
