

James M. Marcy Sr.

October 21, 1953 - August 2, 2013

Albany- James M. Marcy, Sr., 59, passed away August 2, 2013 surrounded by his family. Born in Albany he was the son of Shirley Vaughn Marcy and the late Daniel Marcy. He was predeceased by his beloved wife Gail Margaret Albert Marcy in 2004 after 32 years of marriage. He was recently engaged to Ali Kiernozek.

He honorably served in the National Guard from 1974 to 1995. He retired from the Albany Housing Authority after 32 years and was a dispatcher for AAA for 18 years. He was an avid NASCAR fan and enjoyed watching professional wrestling with his grandchildren.

He was the beloved father of Lisa A. Marcy, James M. Marcy, Jr., (Bobbi Jo) and Samantha L. Dumas (Justin) and his niece Michelle Fine; cherished grandfather of Jeremy, Christopher, Nathan, Dakota, Jimmy III and Juliana; brother of John (Connie) and Robert (Fiancee Darlene) Marcy. Also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins. He was a good friend to Bill W.

Funeral services Monday, August 5, 2013 at 7:00 pm in the McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen, Albany. Relatives and friends are invited and may call after 4:00 pm in the funeral home. Those wishing to remember Jim in a special way may send contributions to a charity of your choice.

To leave a message for the family, light a candle, offer a virtual gift, obtain directions or view other helpful services, please visit www.McVeighFuneralHome.com

Tribute Wall

“ McVeigh Funeral Home, Inc. created a Tribute Video in memory of James M. Marcy Sr.

McVeigh Funeral Home, Inc. - August 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ James M. Marcy Sr.

October 08, 2023 at 09:24 PM

“ My darling, sweet Jim. Words can NEVER express the sorrow I feel in your passing. I do know that you were very tired of being sick and tired. Thank you for being such a kind, loving gentle man. It was sincerely a God given BLESSING to have you in my life.

My sincere condolences to Lisa, Jim Jr. and Samantha, as well to Mom Marcy, John and Connie, Robert and Darlene and ALL the grandchildren, Aunts, Uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and all who knew him. I will be here for all of you....with God's abundant blessings, if you need me.

~ Ali

Ali - August 19, 2013 at 02:17 PM

LT

“ I sit here today, on the lake that I now have the opportunity to live on...and I am in disbelief! Really? No one else other than Bobbi Jo responded to this message.

Everyday I miss him...I want to call him, and talk to him...and I am so grieving.

To Mr. Dick Hurley...I loved your words, your honesty, and your humor about Jim.

I am really struggling with my loss.

Bobbi Jo...perfect response. I loved him, and he loved me.

I am crying now...still grieving the loss of this great friend.

I was so distraught when I packed to get home to attend the funeral, I forgot to pack underpants. I had the dress, the pajamas, the curling irons, the makeup, etc...and 2 hours into my drive home I realized that. I had to go to Walmart when I first arrived.

Jim would have laughed about that...my forgetfulness.

I just want to say, sometimes somebody captures your heart, and Jim captured mine. His smile, his love of life, his ability to stay strong, his perseverance!

I can't stop crying about this. I know grief is a process, but right now...I can't get to stage 2.

Anybody that loved Jim as much as I do...or did, please contact me at leannt1960@yahoo.com, I'd love to share your thoughts, or stories.

Leann Tefft - August 19, 2013 at 12:23 PM

AL

Oh my Leann.....I loved him so so so much!!!! As soon as I clean out the rest of my crap from email....I will write.....

So funny about forgetting underwear!!!! He would have, no doubt, laughed about that.

I am so struggling with his loss.....how do I go on?

Ali - August 19, 2013 at 02:14 PM

LT

“Mr. James Marcy was institutional in MY life and such a great friend to me. I am missing him, and will miss him forever!

I had a hard time at his funeral, listening to those that spoke about him. Had I been able to speak...there are somethings I would have said.

Jim was true, and kind, and a brutally honest man. He was not one to hold a grudge, and he never was judgemental. He was giving, and kind...beyond belief!

Without Jim's friendship, I really don't know where I would be today. I am sad to admit that...but so grateful Jim was in my life.

Sometimes you cross paths with people, and we crossed paths...and he hooked me! Hooked me with his absolute genuine personality. He was a beautiful man, inside, and out.

We shared many great times, and many great talks.

He took me to Gail's grave one time on Mother's Day. He was so grief stricken...that's where he needed to be. Then, we went fishing...and I hate to fish.

I did that because I loved everything about my friend. And, I wanted to give back to him all the things he was giving to me!

Jim gave me strength, guidance, support, and love. I will always be grateful that I had him in my life.

The last time I saw him in person was after I came back from vacation...and he drove to see me in Clifton Park...at my hotel. I took him to dinner at the Outback...and I just loved seeing him again.

I realized his health was failing, I just didn't realize he was so close to being called home.

For all of you that know what I am really saying here...I am crying, and grieving, and struggling. I hated trying to come back to Albany, and navigate that city...without Jim. I feel like Albany has lost it's spirit.

I'll be ok, I'm sure he will be watching over me, and sending me signals from the "Great Beyond." I know he went to heaven. I will see him again...someday.

I feel lost, lonely, and scared to death to face my life without this friend. I will honor his memories, choose the right paths, and make him proud.

I love you Mr. James Marcy...I have loved you since the day you came into my life.

Great friends are so rare, and you were truly one of my greatest friends in MY life. I'll always love you...and I miss you so!

Leann

Leann Tefft - August 09, 2013 at 11:09 AM

BM

This was amazingly said Leann, I speak for the Marcy's....Thank you Bobbi <3

Bobbi Marcy - August 11, 2013 at 07:22 AM

AL

Oh my goodness Leann. How beautifully said. God how I miss him.

I, too, am wondering: (re-posted from Leann)

"I feel like Albany has lost it's spirit.

I'll be ok, I'm sure he will be watching over me, and sending me signals from the "Great Beyond." I know he went to heaven. I will see him again...someday.

I feel lost, lonely, and scared to death to face my life without this friend.

I will honor his memories, choose the right paths, and make him proud.

I love you Mr. James Marcy...I have loved you since the day you came into my life.

Great friends are so rare, and you were truly one of my greatest friends in MY life. I'll always love you...and I miss you so!

Leann"

How beautifully said and I feel the same way! I could not have said it any more eloquently than you did!!! Thank you so much for sharing!!!

Love ya girlfriend!!!! ----Ali---

Ali - August 19, 2013 at 02:01 PM

JR

“ John Ryan lit a candle in memory of James M. Marcy Sr.

John Ryan - August 05, 2013 at 08:23 AM

JR

Here's to all the great years with the 105MP Co!!! Gob Bless

John Ryan - August 05, 2013 at 08:24 AM

NA

I Will always think about you

nate - April 12, 2016 at 10:11 AM