

James G. McGreen

December 27, 1959 - October 1, 2014

Albany-James "Jim" G. McGreen, 54, died very peacefully at home on Wednesday, October 1, 2014 after a long illness.

He was the son of the late John C. and Louise Reilly McGreen, brother of Mary and John R. McGreen, nephew of Henry (Florence) McGreen, brother-in-law of Sheri McGreen, and uncle of Jilian and Matthew McGreen. He is also survived by 14 cousins and their children. He was predeceased by his brother, Dr. Peter McGreen.

Jim lived his entire life in Albany and was a graduate of Bishop Maginn High School. Prior to his disability he was employed by St. Peter's Hospital, the Villa Mary Immaculate Nursing Home and the City of Albany Playground Program. He was always kind to children and very helpful to his elderly neighbors.

Funeral services Tuesday, October 7, 2014 at 9:30 am in the Parish of Mater Christi, Albany where a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. There will be no public visitation hours. Interment will be at St. Agnes Cemetery, Menands.

“ My sincere condolences. May the words at Isaiah 25:8 bring you comfort during this difficult time " He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ So sorry to hear of Jim passing. I have many fond memories of hanging out with "Greeney." Spending time with Jim, Mickey Signor, and Dom Ivaroni where always fun and memorable. Mr and Mrs McGreen where the salt of the earth and always treated myself and anyone who crossed there path with kindness and heart felt compassion. I hope and pray Jim in heaven is the healthy, funny, smart teenager I will always remember united with mom and dad and brother Peter.
