

James "Jimmy" P. Miller

December 3, 1939 - March 29, 2025

Albany, NY—"Jimmy Miller" James Paul Miller, passed peacefully on March 29th, 2025.

Born December 3rd, 1939, to the late John and Marguerite (Tierney) Miller. One of five children, he is predeceased by his brothers Jackie and Dick and survived by his sisters Chris and Peggy.

Predeceased by his loving wife of 53 years, Patricia Ann (Kirwin) Miller.

Jim was a proud life-long resident of Albany. After serving in the US Army, he became a member of the Operating Engineers Union Local 106. He retired from the Albany Water Department with the only crane license in the city.

Jim enjoyed bartending throughout Albany for over 50 years, at such places as the North Albany Post 1610 and the Garden Grill. Most well-known for his time at the Albany Elks, Lodge #49, where he was a 61year life-time member. Never shy to tell you what he thought. His straightforwardness and unapologetic sincerity will be missed.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Jim with his wife Pat, spent every summer at their various camps throughout the Adirondacks, where they enjoyed entertaining their family and many friends.

Jim was the proud father of his son, John Joseph Miller. Whom Jim named after his own father and grandfather.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Jim's family Thursday, April 3, 2025 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm in McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance only.

“ Jim you were more you than anyone I have ever met. I always knew where I stood with you because you always told it like it was. At 11:00 tonight I will think of the bright rye smile that you would always greet me with and know that you will never be forgotten.
