

James A. Richmond

July 23, 1934 - April 20, 2023

Albany-James A. Richmond died Thursday, April 20, 2023, at home in Albany. A lifelong resident of Albany, Jim was the son of the late Helen (Tomlinson) and William Richmond. He was pre-deceased by his beloved wife Angela Richmond.

Jim served in the United States Army. He graduated from Albany High School and Albany Business College. He was a well-known insurance agent for over forty years working at several agencies and retired from Marshall and Sterling.

Jim's sense of humor endeared him to family, clients and friends. He was a great source of family history, and his amusing style of delivering stories will be greatly missed by all who knew him. There were not many conversations with Jim that went without including memories of his wife Angie whom he missed dearly. Jim was an artist and many of his personal paintings were displayed in his home. As a mentor, Jim quietly helped many in need of guidance during their recovery.

He is survived by his beloved brother Wallace Richmond, his brother-in-law Guy J. Criscione, Sr. and several nieces and nephews. He was pre-deceased by eight brothers and sisters and their spouses, Donald (Irene) Richmond, William (Mary) Richmond, Robert (Jessie) Richmond, Mary (Christopher) Hoffman, Mildred (Ira) Castle, Margaret (Felix) Cunningham, June Criscione,
