

James J. Sartore

July 13, 1940 - February 23, 2015

Albany-James A. Sartore, 74, passed away peacefully Monday, February 23, 2015 at Albany County Nursing Home.

Born in Albany he was the son of the late Augusto and Antoinette Pompei Sartore. Jim spent most of his young and adult life in Albany, and later moved to Colonie. People knew him to be an extremely caring, kind and compassionate person who will be sorely missed.

A graduate of Hudson Valley Community College with two associate degrees. He worked as a draftsman for the Office of General Services, State of New York, until his retirement. For years after retirement, among other interest, he had a passion for creating various novelty and electronic items.

He was the devoted husband for 44 years of Marie Antoinette Capoccitti Sartore; father of Matthew Sartore; brother of Richard Sartore; many cousins throughout the states also survive.

The family would like to thank the Doctors, Nurses and staff and Palliative members at Albany Medical Center, Colonie Manor and Albany County Nursing Home for the kindness and compassion shown to us and Jim over the past year.

Jim would have agreed with the words of Ernest Hemingway: "Every man's life ends the same way. It is only the details of how he lived and how he died that distinguishes one man from another."

“ To family: May the words at Isaiah 25:8 bring you comfort during this difficult time " He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all face."

“ My prayers go out to Jimmy's family. I am a first cousin of Jimmy on his mother's side. I am sorry to say we lost contact many years ago when I left Albany/Rensselaer to join the Navy. I remember many visits with our Aunt Antonette and her family. As with all our relatives there was much food and many pinches of cheeks for all the children. Jimmy I remember as being very quiet and just happy to sit and take in his surroundings. I am truly sorry for your loss.
Sincerely

“ *Ritchie & Marie Antoinette,
It was sad to hear of Jimmy's passing. He was a wonderful & devoted person. His interest & talents with inventions was a great joy and part of his life.
Rest in peace gentle soul.
Being in Florida at this time makes it difficult to attend the services but my thoughts and prayers are with the family.
Love Cousin Caroline*
