

James J. Wierzbicki

August 5, 1950 - September 13, 2024

Albany, NY-James Joseph Wierzbicki, known affectionately as Jim, was born on August 5, 1950, in Amsterdam, NY, and was called home to the Lord on September 13, 2024, in East Greenbush, NY. A Vietnam veteran serving in the United States Marine Corps., Jim dedicated over 30 years of his professional life to National Grid.

Jim was a talented athlete, showcasing his skills as a standout football player at Bishop Scully High School. His love for sports continued throughout his life, as he enjoyed watching his sons excel in sports as well. He had a passion for fishing, gardening, and traveling to exotic destinations with his loved ones.

A devoted husband, Jim cherished his late wife, Tracey Lynn Wierzbicki. He is survived by his children: Dominic, James, Jeremy, and Stephen, along their significant others, eight grandchildren, one greatgrandson, and numerous nieces and nephews who all will forever cherish the memory of him.

Known for his unique spirit, Jim often entertained those around him with his humorous, off color quips & antics. Willing to do anything to get a laugh especially at a party.

Jim will be remembered not only for his accomplishments and skills but also for his sense of humor. His legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

“ We were Jim and Tracey's neighbors in Albany. Jim and Tracey were both so helpful to us as new parents and new homeowners. They were so welcoming. We do remember their love for gardening and pets. They adored their boys and were so proud of their accomplishments. We smile when we think back to our times with them. God speed Jim. You are now once again with the love of your life. Extra hugs for Stephen ❤️
