“ To the family of Janet Vroman Burns:

Your sadness extends to the entire VI family. I was a fellow student of Janet's in the class of '56.

I remember Janet as a very lovely, intelligent lady. In reading the previous tributes, I would have loved to have known her better as an adult. She was truly a remarkable lady.

Those whom she touched were indeed honored. May she rest in peace with Christ.

“ What a lovely picture of a beautiful woman! I am so lucky to have met Colleen almost 25 years ago in our MHT training class. She brought me home for some TLC one weekend and I got to meet the family. Rest assured that I will keep an eye on her for you Janet....##imported-begin##Diana Walters##imported-end##

“ To The Loving Family Of Janet Burns,

The number of people that enter your life and effect you so profoundly, are few and far between. Mrs. Burns was my third grade teacher and my year in her classroom really moulded the person I became. Mrs. Burns was a model teacher, a person of the highest ethics, and a successful, classy professional woman for young, impressionable girls to emulate. How rare to encounter such a tremendously positive role-model and how lucky her students to be touched by her teaching.

Mrs. Burns had a magical way of making each student feel special, finding a child's talent and nurturing it. Throughout my long academic career, I often fondly remembered my third grade experience in Mrs. Burn's class. Her love of learning was positively contagious. Her effect on my academics and life after college, is so great, the ripples in the pond still continue.

My fondest memory is of Mrs. Burns' sparkling smile, conceding to my mother in a parent-teacher conference that I was her 'favorite'. Regrettably, I never had the opportunity to tell her that she was my favorite.

My deepest simpathies during this very difficult time. Please take solace in the fact that your mom lives on in the hearts and minds of the countless children she touched. She is fondly remembered and dearly missed by many.

With Sincerest Simpathies,

“ Collen,

I will always remember your beautiful mother. The excitement I had when she was chosen as our substitute teacher and then as such a part of all our activities at Mercy High School. My deepest sympathies to you and your father and your children.

“ *Dear Darrell and Colleen,
Please accept our deep sympathy on the death of Janet. She was a sweet and lovely lady.
John and I will be away tomorrow and for the weekend, and so unable to offer our condolences personally. Know that you are in our prayers.
Sincerely,
