

Joan E. Andresen

February 10, 1941 - February 28, 2022

Feura Bush, NY-Joan E. Andresen, 81, entered Eternal Life Monday, February 28, 2022, with her devoted family by her side. Joan was born and raised in Albany, NY, the daughter of the late Frank and Isabelle (Grande) Padula and wife of the late Alan C. Andresen.

Joan spent her life primarily as an avid homemaker. In addition, she worked part time over the years as a bank teller, receptionist, and executive assistant. Joan lived the past 15 years in Florida with her beloved husband, Alan. Joan was an active parishioner at St. Leo the Great Catholic Church in Bonita Springs, FL. She was a catechist in the religious education program at St Leo, and a member of the Ladies Guild where she volunteered her time. In her free time, she enjoyed many sunsets at the beach with family and friends.

Survivors include her loving children Lynn M. (Daniel) Bowman of Feura Bush, NY, Matthew A. Andresen of Great Neck, NY and Laura M. Andresen (William Dugan) of Niskayuna, NY, and cherished grandchildren, Chelsea E. and Aubree M. Snide. She is also survived by Vicky Daniels of Bonita Springs, FL, a loyal friend for many years and as close to her as a sister, as well as by her faithful canine companion Sammy.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Joan's family Saturday, March 5, 2022 1:30 pm to 3:00 pm at the McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen

Street, Albany, NY 12206. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance only. Unvaccinated individuals are respectfully requested to wear a Mask.

Joan's Memorial Service will follow at 3:00 pm

“ We shared many adventures and laughter with your family from Harding Street. Jane will mention Joan and Alan when we talk about earlier years and the fun the 4 of you had. She often wondered if you were still in Florida . We send our condolences and wish you happier memories. Jane Klarsfeld and family.
