

Joan Y. Mercure

June 29, 1920 - November 8, 2014

Albany-Joan Mercure, born in Ticonderoga, NY on June 29, 1920 passed away at the age of 94 on November 8, 2014 in the comfort of her home. Joan was known as being the sweetest and kindest person you would have ever met.

Joan wanted to be a dancer and she had the most beautiful legs of any woman. Her friends used to tease her when she was young because her ankles were so thin. But that dream was not in the cards for her. She, with her husband, Robert Blye, owned and operated The Pines Restaurant a/k/a Captain Blyes overlooking Lake Champlain. For 43 years she was dedicated to that restaurant and she made a lot of people happy with the beautiful meals she prepared. After her husband Bob died, she then married Elmer Mercure, of Granville, NY and they had many happy years together until his passing. She was predeceased by her father Eldie Cossey, mother Mable Cossey, then her sister Lorraine Moore all of Ticonderoga, NY.

Always a fashionable dresser, she loved to shop, and even pulled off that famous saying, 'shop till you drop!' in Macy's one day. Joan will always be remembered for her smile and her kindness to others.

She is survived by her daughter Vicki Lockman of Albany, NY, son-in-law Jerry Lockman, granddaughter Heidi Molony, her kindred spirit of Albany, NY, a niece Cheryl O'Connor of Ticonderoga, NY and all her friends and neighbors on Wilan Lane.

A Memorial Service will be held Saturday, November 15, 2014 at 4:30 pm in McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany.

Relatives and friends are invited and may also attend a Memorial Visitation Saturday 3:00 to 5:00 pm in the funeral home.

Those wishing to remember Joan in a special way may send a contribution to American Heart Association, 440 New Karner Road, Albany, NY 12205.
