“ Mike, Eileen and family,

Very sorry to hear about you Mom passing.....feels like part of my childhood is gone with her!! Lots of great memories growing up, with our families as close as they were. I think back to the days of Little League, Babe Ruth, Albany Pop Warner and American Legion, and honestly the thoughts of Mrs. Reynolds come to mind. Everyone feared getting "cuffed" by her swift left hand!!

She was always there to give us a ride when we needed it, make a sandwich on a day over at 78 Ramsey when we were swimming, or to even BBQ over 100 trout that we caught during the summer with your Dad.

She's in a better place now with your Dad....I'm sure they're having a ball talking about all of us and laughing at all of us.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
