“ Friends may come and go but I feel like a member of Joans family. Her mom was my mom for many years. Mary, Joans sister and I were best friends. We always took Joanie with us. She will be missed.

May these words of comfort in some way serve to show that others care more deeply than you know.

“ *Joan,
I can remember so many wonderful things about working with you at the APD. You were a wonderful person with such a big heart and you invested your every effort into everything you did! I am so thankful that your suffering is finally over and that you have been reunited with Niel and are now free to spend eternity at peace. Sleep well my friend...*

“ Ronnie, Wanda & family,
We are so very sorry for your loss, we hope that your mother has found the peace and love we sure was waiting for her. As lucky as you all were to have her she was equally as lucky to have all of you. We will keep your mother as well as all of you in our prayers as you try to find peace and comfort in your memories of your time together. If you need anything at all we are here for you. Love you all!##imported-begin##Elaine & Tiffany##imported-end##

“ Having worked with Joan through the years one thing I could honestly say was that she never complained. Through many problems and sicknesses and Neil's death she was always warm and friendly and quick with a smile.

She will be missed not only a a former co-worker but as a wonderful human being.

God Bless!!##imported-begin##Lenny Crouch##imported-end##

“ We were so sad to hear of Joanie's passing. We were work friends for a lot of years and helped each other through some trying times. I often remember when Neil would pick her up from work and she would have to sit in the back seat because their cocker spaniel was holding court in the front seat. I'm sure she and Neil are back together again and he's cooking up a storm to fatten her up.##imported-begin##Donna & Chuck Whalen##imported-end##
