“ Joan was my dad's cousin (Ken Stamper, Ruth Boshea's son) and lived with my dad's sister, Carol Golden, for many years after Carol's husband Frank passed away. I got to know Joan through visits to my Aunt Carol's house (I have lived most of my life in the midwest and west, so I didn't get to visit too often). She was always sweet and kind to myself and my family. I also know she was very special to my Aunt and her daughter (my cousin) Barbara.

She will be greatly missed!
