“ Most likely many of us will remember Uncle Jack everyday, especially when you hear a bird whistling along in the early morning hours....that puts a smile on my face, makes me look around to check to see if it's Uncle Jack teasing me! There's an old Irish prayer that goes,
"May you see God's light on the path ahead when the road you walk is dark. May you always hear, even in your hour of sorrow, the gentle singing of the lark."
