“ Audrey and Neil and the Kindlon Family, I and my wife Francine meet your Mom and Dad back when you were very young. We had a special common connection because Jack and I were two Irish Gringos who married two beautiful Mexican Senoritas. Your Mom and Francine were born on the same day and year in Mexico. Francine passed away four years ago in home hospice. I sadly remember being with your family at hospice when your Mom passed away at such a young age and you being so young children at the time. Years have passed and our paths went separate ways but we always remembered the times of enjoyment with your parents and family. I'm sure the three are looking down on us and listening to Irish and Mexican music. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. God bless you.

Audrey, Chris and I send our heartfelt condolences. We enjoyed seeing your dad when he visited you in Arlington. We appreciated how much Jack cared for you as demonstrated by his occasional calls to us when he was worried that you hadn't returned his call! He was a loving father and I know you and Neil have good memories of him.
