“ Joe and Vinnie,

I am very sorry for your loss. I have known you guys since Cathedral Academy and your father and mother did a great job raising the two of you. We were both blessed to have such loving and caring parents whose main goal in life was to always be there for us. I am sure your father is now in heaven along side your mom being rewarded for all the good things he did while on this earth. My prayers are with your father and his family during this sad time. May he rest in peace.

“ Joseph: sorry to hear about your father's passing. I have much respect for those who made a living in the construction trades. Sounds like he had an interesting and very fulfilling life. It's rewarding to share life with a large and extended family. I would imagine that there are many fond memories coming to mind. Peace.

How are things for you and family in Florida?

“ Carmella and family, we send you love and prayers as you struggle through this difficult time. Although I only knew your father for a short time, he was a shining light at Solaris Parkway when he and my father were roommates. God works in mysterious ways which we can never understand. Every time I asked him how he was he would respond "Thank you God, I am fine". I know he is truly fine! If you are up to it when you return from Albany please give me a call and maybe we could go to coffee. With love and prayers, Donna Minelli Hosang, Al Minelli's daughter. 772-539-4195
