“ Although we had lost touch in recent years I have fond memories of our childhood and of John visits to Hawaii. We always had fun when John was present. He had an outgoing, wonderful personality. I hope we meet again some day.

“ Pariseau Family:
I had the pleasure of working with John AKA Buff for many years in the APD. He was a valued member of the Albany Police Officers Union as well. He gave me great guidance when I served as President of the Union and I will always remember him for that. He had some sense of humor- lot of laughs with him over the years. I will not be able to attend his services as I am out of town but you can be rest assured I will keep him in my prayers.

“ Johnny, as I will always call him use to come from Albany and go out with us to the pubs in S. Hero, VT. Than he'd come back to Aunt Shine and Uncle Loris house and talk about what he'd seen for days. He made us all laugh with how he saw us country cousins. I always enjoyed his company, great memories, he will be missed very much.
Hugs to his whole family who by the way, are my cousins....
