

John W. Roman

October 15, 1928 - March 7, 2018

Albany-John W. Roman, beloved husband of Joyce Senez Roman, went home to God on March 7th in the loving comfort and care of his family. John was born at Ballston Lake, NY and resided in Albany until his marriage. He was the son of the late Alex and Frances Kolakowski Roman.

John was a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy, as well as of Albany Business College. He was employed at Rose & Kiernan, Inc. as an insurance broker and retired as Senior Vice-President of the Corporation after forty-two years of employment

Upon his retirement he and Joyce moved to their home on Cape Cod where they enjoyed many happy years. The couple wintered in Venice, Florida and there, as well as on the Cape, established lasting and cherished friendships .

John was an active member of his parish, St. Pius X, Loudonville, having served on the Parish Council, the Bereavement Committee, Pastoral Care Volunteer, as a lector and Eucharistic Minister for many years. He was equally active at the Parish of St. Pius X, South Yarmouth while residing on the Cape, where he served on several committees with special involvement in Bereavement Ministry.

John served on the United Fund Campaign, and as a Board member and Treasurer of Chapel House at SUNYA, as well as on the Board of Directors at Bishop Maginn High School for many years. He was also a member of the Knights of Malta.

John was a very loving and devoted husband and father who was much loved by his family. He will be deeply missed .

In addition to his wife, John is survived by three sons: Mark of Eau Claire, WI, Brian of Cohoes and Dr. Peter (Cynthia) of Washington, DC. He was predeceased by his infant daughter, Marcia Lourdes Roman. He is also survived by two brothers, George and Charles, as well as five sisters, Mary, Sister Barbara, Irene, Frances and Paulette, along with his loving former daughter in law Linda Roman of Loudonville.

He leaves to grieve him his beloved sisters-in-law, Carolyn Koval (late Joseph), and Janet Fitzgerald (Patrick), as well as several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by three brothers, Edward, Rev. Paul Roman and Frank Roman.

“ Our community has lost a true leader and gentleman. My earliest memories include the Roman family sitting in the front pew during services at St. Pius. A role model family for all of us. My prayers are with Joyce and the Family.

“ Joyce and family

My sincere sympathy to you and your family.

John was a very nice person.

You bought your townhouse at 27 bridgewood lane from me.

*Sincerely,
Linda Kazanjian*
