“ This offers me comfort, I hope it will do the same for your and yours:

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the gentle autumn rain,
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circles flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do no stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die."*

I'm so sorry for your loss. John was my assistant in East Greenbush and a friend from the day I first met him. He was a kind man with a great sense of humor that loved his family. My thoughts are with your family.
