

John A. Wrenn

March 2, 1942 - September 26, 2015

Marshall, TX-John A. Wrenn died peacefully at his retirement home in Marshall, Texas on Saturday, September 26, 2015 at the age of 73.

John is survived by his sister, Joyce M. Wrenn of Albany, NY and numerous cousins.

John was born on March 2, 1942 in Albany. He graduated from South Colonie Central School, Albany Business College and Junior College of Albany.

John sold, installed and repaired radio systems for police and fire departments from 1960 to 1980. When the technology changed, he moved to Tucson, Arizona where he opened and operated a store selling architectural hardware. In 1998 he retired and moved to Marshall, Texas.

John was known for his friendliness. All who knew him liked him. One of the activities he and his friends liked to do, when he lived in Tucson, AZ was to shoot at targets from a homemade Ramada in the Arizona desert. John also liked to travel and visited many interesting places.

“ I knew John in Tucson, AZ when he operated his "Albany Lock Service." He was a wonderful person who taught me much, not just about locks and locksmithing, but about many subjects. He was erudite and extremely intelligent.
