“ To All "Uncle Johnny's" family ~
What a blessing you all were to that dear, dear man! All those days you were with him, visiting with him, taking him out, finally, sitting with him as he prepared to go home to God. Your love and devotion shall always be remembered. God bless you all!
And, as for you, John, you were my friend; I'll miss you. May you rest eternally in the arms of our dear Savior.
Pray for us that we might meet merrily in Heaven. Bye for now,
"Uncle Johnny."###imported-begin###Mary Mahar###imported-end###

“ Though I met you only once in person, our connection will be eternal. I shall forever cherish all the letters and pictures you sent throughout the years. I came to know you through these letters; your love of gardening, fishing, and hunting...all memories that can never be taken away. May God Bless You, My Grandfather.
