“ *Dear John, Robert, and Joey, this is a special day to remember your Dad. The family reunions in Albany are a wonderful memory. Your Dad and I exchanged Christmas cards and notes. I have his Mass card right here. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. The Molin Family- Audrey, Brian, Trude and Grandson

“ *John, Rob, & Joe,
I'm sorry to hear about your Dad.
What a generous man! My Mom really enjoyed the vegetables, from the plants he planted in her yard. He was so good to her.
It was sad to see him fail, when I was able to visit him. I pray God will comfort you and fill you with His peace, at this time. Love,

“ We are truly sorry to learn of your loss; but glad that our "uncle John" had as many years as he did to enjoy his family and being outdoors hunting and fishing. Too much time has passed since we saw you all last. All I can say is that we Murrays have been truly blessed.

*I do know that your "uncle Jim" held his family and your father in great esteem. We have lost two John Murrays too recently, both were greatly loved and are truly missed. Very best to all your clan.
