“ John

This is very hard for me to write. You have been part of our family for 20 years and a friend for much longer. You had a lot of friends who knew you as Faz but also many who knew you as we did as John.

I remember all the good times we all had at family celebrations and also all the sorrows we all went through together.

When I think about you I can still hear all your endless chatter as you never stopped talking and always went on and on. Made us laugh alot.

Most of all I knew how much you loved and worried about Donna being left alone when you were called home to be with the Lord. Not to worry, She will be ok.

I won't say Good Bye because I believe that some day we all meet again when it is our time to be called home.

God Bless, until we meet again.

Love, Kathy & Paul###imported-begin##Kathy O'Dell##imported-end##

“Dad I am writing this to say that no matter what our situation was I loved you dearly no matter what people have said or thought. You will always be my dad- I cant change that and I dont think I would. There are many things left unsaid but I have forgiven and let alot of hurt go for my walk with Christ is too powerful for me to not forgive. I want to remember the good times, times when I was sick and you would hold and take care of me, the times when we would talk father to son; you missed out on alot but I am sure you will get a chance to see it now. I think alot of people only see you as Fazz, which was hard for me to live up to because I was not like you, but they didnt know the dad side to you- sometimes violent but with me saying that also soft and gentle. I know in my heart you were the best dad you could be for the time that you could I have no regrets, I wish you would have gotten the chance to see what I do best, leading people to Jesus Christ the way God works through me when I hit the stage, the passion and fire that is inside me. Anthony and Macy will miss you, Anthony is beautiful, dad, and Macy- well what can I say she is stunning. I am sorry for the times I did not call or see you more; I take the blame for that. But for a long time, I had a lot of anger of childhood memories, but I have gotten over it. I wouldnt be able to move on if I didnt.

You will be missed by your friends of the Fazz they know and Donna loves you and misses you for the John she knows, but you are riding your bike now with big Daddy. I will see you soon as my journey to be the best witness for Christ continues. I will be back on the stage soon and I will be looking up into the lights to see you - I will cry and miss you but I will also be rejoicing for you are with the King and I am happy we had the time we had a couple weeks ago. You are and forever will be my dad.

Walk with God...I love you.

Your son,

Frank###imported-begin###Frank Faccioli###imported-end###
