

John Joseph Romanzo

March 7, 1922 - July 28, 2012

Albany-John Joseph Romanzo, 90, died July 28, 2012 at Delmar Place. Born in Albany, he was the son of the late Santo "Sam" and Antoinette Gallone Romanzo. John was a WW II Marine Corps veteran, serving his Country proudly in the Caribbean and South Pacific. He worked for the US Postal Service, the Albany Public Markets, and as a DAV driver. He was a longtime member the DAV, the Elks, Knights of Columbus, Marine Corp League, and NALC Branch 29.

John was larger than life! He loved his 'bride,' Josie, daughters and grandchildren more than he could ever say. He taught us to be strong, not let anyone put us down and that family is the most important thing to care for and enjoy. John was predeceased by his beloved wife, Josephine Scovello Romanzo, on July 3, 2008.

He was the devoted father of Dolores Jaeger (Vincent), Christine Antonio (Michael), and Annette Gaspary (Leonard); cherished grandfather of Allyson Forster (John), Heather Vigeant (Michael), Richard Antonio (June), Matthew Antonio (girlfriend Elizabeth Comley), Leonard Gaspary (Kathleen), and Brian Gaspary (Melissa); proud Poppy of Grace, Giuliana, Blake, and Austin; brother of Frances Camponeschi and the late Natalie, Henry, Edward and Samuel Romanzo, Rose Hughes and Augusta Stewart; brother-in-law of Peggy and Virginia Romanzo, Dominic Scovello (Irene), Helene Scovello and the late Victoria and Michael Scovello, Carmella and Rita Romanzo, and Joseph Hughes; many nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews survive.

“ Uncle John, thank you for putting the fear of God in my husband, Jerome on the day of our Wedding. 8-1-81. It has been 31years and Jerome remembers it as yesterday, lol. Of course, Jerome said he told Uncle John that he doesn't hit women. I didn't think Uncle John cared what Jerome said. He just wanted to make a point. Point well taken, don't mess with my Niece. If only everyone had an Uncle John. lol.##imported-begin##MariA Romanzo-Mikula##imported-end##
