“ *Dear Aunt Marianne, Susan, Ellen, Kathleen, Laura, spouses & kiddos,
We wanted to let you know that we're thinking of you, and that we made a donation in memory of Uncle Joe to our church's food pantry. Our hope is that the families being served will receive a meal that includes dessert, since we know how much he loved sweets.
Love,

“ Dear Marianne and Family - I was honored to have had Joe in my life for so many years. Our Movie Group and Trivia Nights gave Alison and I such great times - just a fun, positive time we could count on every month and year. Joe had such great movie insights (especially when awake) and a huge factor in so many trivia wins (and near wins). But most importantly a good man - husband, father, friend. One of the GOAT for sure. So fortunate to share the life journey with Joe (and the Donovan Family). Joe

“ Dear Marianne.....Pauline and I were deeply saddened when we learned of Joe's passing. What immediately came to mind was the time Joe and I got to know each other at Our Lady of Angels Seminary in Glenmont. After leaving the seminary, we continued our friendship which resulted in our many get togethers for dinner and picnics especially at Thatcher Park. Our children Dawn, David, Daniel and Damien were also saddened by the news and send their deepest sympathy for your loss. Pauline and I will be attending the funeral mass tomorrow. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. We look forward to getting together again in the not too distant future.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Donovan family and to all those whose lives were touched by this wonderful man. When I think of him I just picture smiles- his smiles and the smiles of those around him. His memory will keep those smiles coming always. He added happiness to the world, and that influence is everlasting.

“ I send you my sincere condolences on the loss of your beloved husband/father/grandfather... Joe was a valued member of Bethlehem Senior Chorus and will be missed. He was always friendly, thoughtful, helpful, gentlemanly, and an all-around great guy. Plus, of course, he had a great tenor voice. I send the e-mails for the chorus, so one day Joe sent me an email saying he would be absent (for me to forward to Claudia, our director). It started out "Hi Babe," instead of "Hi Bea." Later Joe, very embarrassed, discovered what he had written and sent me another email apologizing profusely and declaring that he henceforth intended to proofread carefully before sending messages. We had some good laughs over that incident. May happy memories of times shared with Joe, plus your faith, as well as the support of family and friends, give you peace and comfort in your loss and grief.

“ I am extremely saddened to learn of Joe's passing. He has been a true friend since our days at Holy Cross and kept in contact through the years He would stop by if in the area. We would play some tennis at class reunions. His famous line comes to mind when I'm faced with a routine problem: "Don't sweat the small stuff". My deep sympathy to his family.

“ To Joe's family:

“ Joe and I were tennis buddies forever. We nicknamed him 'orthoman' because he wore several braces and guards when we played. I remember one time he complained of his 'tennis' arm hurting so much that he said he couldn't play. Well we took care of that in a hurry. We invented 'non dominant' tennis where we used only the 'non' tennis arm to play with. Both of us 'stunk' at it, but we had great fun doing it. If there's tennis up in heaven, you can bet Joe is playing there now. Miss you buddy.

“ *Maryann and family,
While Joe was in the declining days of his illness, I was taken ill and hospitalized for four days. Joe called Henry Hughes, a common friend and one of the ROMEOS (Retired Old Men Eating Out – a luncheon group that got together every Friday) to inquire about my condition. I was so impressed with his compassion, especially given what he was going through, that I wrote him the following email. He valued my response so much that I thought it should be added to his obituary.*

*Joe,
I just got off the phone with Henry. He updated me on your prognosis. I can't believe you had the good grace to inquire about my well-being while facing your own far more serious tribulations. That underscored my conviction that you're not just one of the smartest and funniest human beings I've ever known, but also the kindest. You know that we ROMEOS are your biggest fans, so don't assume you're alone in the days ahead.*

Please keep in touch.

“ Joe & I both began our careers as school psychologists with the Schenectady City School District in 1970 & worked together as colleagues for over 30 years....Joe & I remained in touch after our retirements & we periodically got together for breakfast or lunch with our mutual friend & fellow psychologist, Dan Raymo...it was an honor and privilege to have known Joe throughout the years as he was truly a kind, ethical & caring individual....we shared many laughs and stories over the years & I will dearly miss his smile, thoughtfulness & humble personality....my thoughts & prayers are with Marianne, his family & friends during this very difficult time...may your cherished memories of Joe sustain you & help you heal....may Joe's memory forever be a blessing...

“ Though I did not know Joe very well, I was a colleague of his at several points in our careers in Schenectady. He always took the time to chat. He was such a positive person, always smiling, always upbeat. I am saddened by his passing. My deepest sympathies go out to his family. He was one of the “good guys”. The world was a better place with Joe in it.

“ Marianne and family,

I am so sorry to learn of Joe's passing. What an appropriate photo of him - It captures the wonderful, happy, caring man he always was. There are so many happy memories of Michael and me visiting with the Donovan family. When Joe would visit Michael during his illness, he always brought smiles with his updates on the Donovan family and the reminiscences of happenings over their long years of friendship. Perhaps the universe will find a way to bring the two friends together again. Sending prayers for Joe and love to you all.

Dear Uncle Joe,

As I think about the wonderful life you have lived, I am eternally grateful to my mother for naming me after her, you, Grandma and Grandpa.

My earliest memory is of you brushing and curling my unruly blonde hair at Grandma's house.

After Susan was born, we all went to Wildwood. Kevin and I walked on the Boardwalk with you and Uncle Tim. Because of your height and handsome appearance, you were singled out at one of the kiosks to turn a somersault on the trampoline. You ably complied. We then went for neopolitan ice cream waffle sandwiches - you, a food connoisseur always.

When I had chicken pox you brought me a Kateri Tekawitha coloring book and visited with me, my raging fever and red pock marks eviscerated by your kindness.

When you got married, you and Aunt Mare had a grand wedding at the Golden Fox and all of us kids - the Markers and Whites and Cummings - sat at a round table covered in white linen, drinking Shirley Temples and watching you dance. That was the combined influence of Loretta Cummings and Anna McGovern Donovan. Grandpa arrived at the reception from Glenridge. All had a wonderful time.

There were the times with Susan and Ellen and Kathleen and Laura and David, and later Katie and Michael - all beautiful, delightful children. Christmas and Thanksgiving and birthdays at Grandma's and our house and Aunt Marge's and your house and Aunt Carol and Uncle Tim's. Always you were the enduring, gentle presence in the room.

You raised your children and grandchildren with wisdom and kindness and patience, though it was not always easy. You taught everyone that diversity matters and kindness matters and there is no color and everyone is the same in God's eyes.

To the very end, you lived your life to the fullest, holding a wedding on your front porch, entertaining friends and family with stories of your travels and your favorite books and visiting your favorite haunts with your friends.

You made all of our lives richer for having known you.

We love you very much.

We will hold you to your promise that we will ALL be watching the

I smile as I remember us winning at trivia, mightily I might add ;), on Team JoeEva. And I smile as I remember Joe love on his family so tenderly. I'm so blessed that Joe Donovan was in my life, and I'm so blessed that Mar Donovan continues to be. Love you all, Eva*
