“ I was lucky enough to be a part of Josephines life when Jack was Born. I called her “Jo” and we understood each other. I can say that Josephine lived for her family and loved so many people.

Josephine adored Jack and always was there for us.

I will never forget her and remember how she helped me scrape up every inch of flooring in my little old house when I bought it. She worked hard to help everyone and was always there to help both myself and “little Jack”

I will miss her spunk and bow she knew everything about lawns and gardening.

Rest in peace Jo.

Love, Jenny and Jack
