

Josephine A. Torcoletti

August 23, 1931 - January 8, 2013

Mesa, AZ-Josephine A. Torcoletti, 81, died Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at Telford Home in Mesa, AZ, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Albany, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Josephine D'Alba Zappala.

Josephine was very active in the Italian-American Community Center, her many positions included Vice President of the IACC, Vice President of the IACC Woman's Club and chair of the Membership Committee, Bingo, craft show and many other committees and functions. She worked part-time for United States Federation of Small Business, Inc as a mail clerk until her retirement in 2003 when she moved to Arizona to live with her daughter and son-in-law. Her avid skills as a party and holiday planner and also as a baker delighted family and friends. She loved bingo, dancing, playing cards and also owned race horses with her husband. Josephine will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

She was the wife of the late Arnold P. Torcoletti; mother of Lynn Gaglione (Louis) of Mesa, AZ, Stephen Torcoletti of Mesa, AZ, JoAnn Bryant of Colonie, Paul Torcoletti (Serena) of Tempe, AZ and Lisa Torcoletti of Anacortes, WA; grandmother of Jason Moreland, Sean Moreland, Jarred Bryant, Hallie Freeman, Leonardo and Dominic Torcoletti; great grandmother of Sean and Caelyn Moreland and Jack Weatherwax; sister of Theresa Lomonoco and Vincenzia Cunningham (Vinnie); also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.
