“ *To Joe's Family,
Many years ago I was a new young employee at the Dept of Taxation & Finance and Joe was our boss. We all enjoyed our time spent in his unit. I made the worst mistake one day by getting into a discussion on political policy with him. I soon learned the most valuable lesson that you never discuss politics with an older wiser boss. Many years later he still would tease me. We all remained good friends. My fondest memories of him was that he was a gentle giant. My deepest sympathy to your family. Sincerely, “ Arlene, I am so sorry for your loss. Joe was a great person. I remember Joe always took time to see his Father and Mother. I remember Joe coming with the newspaper every morning to give to his parents. Joe always checked in to see if his Mother and Father were alright. He was a good son. Also you were a good daughter in law, Joe and Agnes loved you very much. I hope you remember us Janet (and my Mother Genevieve who passed away 9 years ago.) I still miss her very much. I see her beautiful face where ever I go. Also you remember Brandon my great Nephew, my Mother's great grandson who we had stayed with us. He is now 23 years old. Agnes and Joe Sr. were the best neighbors on Bleecker Terrace we missed them very much. I will say a Prayer for you. Please pray for me.

Love,
Janet Skinkle###imported-begin##Janet Skinkle###imported-end##
