“ Jay and Deb--Bill Fitzgerald let me know about your Dad. Am so sorry to hear of his passing. My mother passed away last August--my dad in 1993. My best to you and your families. Many good memories from our Loudonville years. Fondly, Shauna##imported-begin##Shauna Donley McNally##imported-end##

“ I've never had a nicer, kinder or friendlier neighbor than Joe Quinn. In the neighborhood we affectionately referred to him as the "Mayor of Brevator Street" because he knew everyone and was always there to help all of us. There were so many times when I would come inside after talking to Joe and remark to myself, "What a marvelous man." His passing leaves the world poorer, but all of us much richer for having known him. My condolences to all the family.##imported-begin##Linda Cavanagh##imported-end##

“ Although I only had a short time to spend with Joe it was always a treat. I was fortunate enough to fly from Chicago to Hawaii with Joe and Shirley for John and Leslie's wedding. The time spent on the flight and at the wedding are how I will always remember Joe. He was warm and friendly and easy to get along with.

The Cutler's send their deepest condolences to Shirley and the Quinn family.##imported-begin##Peter and Jaime Cutler##imported-end##

“ It saddened me to read of Joe's passing. He was our family and business accountant until he retired and also a friend of my fathers. When I lost my Dad in 1996, Joe stopped in to the office every month for a while just to see how I was doing. It was comforting to reminisce with him.

My sympathies to all of you.
