“ For Joyce's family,

Joyce and I have been life-long friends since we both lived on Sheridan Avenue. She was one of the nicest persons I have ever met. Joyce was so down to earth and real. I will miss her so much and feel honored that she and her brother Johnny considered me a good friend. They don't come any better than the two of them. I will remember her in my prayers and her family. I pray the she is at peace and that she is reunited with members of her family in heaven. With love and prayers for all of you, Margie LaSala
