

Judith Ferrara Wesley

August 24, 1954 - July 2, 2015

Loudonville-Judith Ferrara Wesley, 60, died Thursday, July 2 at St. Peter's Hospital after battling ovarian cancer.

Born in Albany, she was the daughter of Jane Ferrara (née Amabile) and Anthony Joseph Ferrara, deceased. Judith grew up in Albany and graduated from the Academy of the Holy Names. She received her bachelor's degree in Art History and English from Boston College and her master's degree in Special Education from The College of Saint Rose.

Judith was an educator and mentor at her alma mater, Academy of the Holy Names. She was loved and revered by her students, to whom she was completely devoted. Prior to her work at the Academy of the Holy Names, she spent 24 years working for the Center for the Disabled in Albany.

Judith enjoyed the beach at Cape Cod and loved to cook, especially for the family and friends that she held so dear.

She is survived by her devoted husband of over 30 years, Charles Martin Wesley, and her loving children, Charles Ferrara Wesley and Anthony Joseph Wesley.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Mrs. Wesley's passing, but am so grateful to have known her. She was not only a teacher, mentor, a crying shoulder, but a friend... And a great one at that. My heart breaks, but is at peace that heaven has gained one beautiful angel. She always spoke highly of her family- I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Mrs. Wesley was not only a resource of academic help for students in the Holy Names community; she was also the leader of the Holy Names’ chapter of Junior Ladies of Charity. The members of Junior Ladies of Charity would like to thank Mrs. Wesley for her dedication to the club, and for her efforts to help the poor and impoverished. Mrs. Wesley was a role model to the entire school community as she extended herself to anyone who needed her help. She was a truly compassionate person, and sincerely cared for her students. She will be missed dearly by all of the members of Junior Ladies of Charity. Our prayers are with the entire Wesley family, and may Mrs. Wesley rest in peace.

“ Mrs. Wesley was a HUGE role model to me!! She helped me achieve in so many ways during my 3 years that I have been at Holy Names and I am forever grateful for that! I always love chatting with her and laughing she was a nonselfish person and always asked her students what they were up to. The whole holy names community will miss her dearly but heaven has a gained an AMAZING person!! 🙏?? we love you Mrs. Wesley!! My condolences to the Mrs. Wesley family.
