“ Mike, I wish you and the children the strength and love for each other to weather the storm. May Karen's strength and love for her family help to guide you. She was a wonderful person. She will remain in your fondest memories and the deepest recesses of your hearts I am sure. May you continue your relationships with her as she will be with you always.

“ I can remember the first time I met Karen. Kaitlin and Sarah had become close friends and little Miss Kaitlin was at our house for a visit. Karen came to our crazy little house on Murray Ave to pick Kaitlin up. We stood in the yard talking and getting to know each other. I felt like I had known this women all my life. She was so loving and easy to talk to and she became a second mom to my kids instantaneously. Her love for her own children was boundless. Her love for every child was epic. There are no words to express how much she will be missed, but at the same time, it is difficult to imagine that she will venture very far from her children, her husband and everyone who loved her. I regret that I had lost touch with my dear friend over the past few years, but I will treasure her friendship always. I also vow to be there for Kaitlin, Michael Jr., Kevin, Christopher, Hannah and Michael Sr. I know she would have done the same had the tables been turned. Rest in peace sweet lady.

Love,
