“ Dear Shannon, Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers at this time as you grieve the loss of your dear mother. I know that you were very close. Whatever the circumstances of her death, it still hurts. I understand from Hollis that the funeral liturgy was beautiful. I am sorry that I was not able to be with you because of First Reconciliation with our second graders at 9:30 that day. I will celebrate Mass for your mother and thank God for the wonderful life she has had and the gift she has been to you and to all who have known her. May she now rest in peace. Fondly, Randy Patterson
